Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on September 20, 2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Anhegger et al (5,031,302) in view of Bovellan et al, both of record, and Goto et al (4,573,694).

4. Anhegger et al discloses a filler neck with a resin neck body (1, Figure 1: 28, Figure 3) and a metal retainer (2, Figure 1, column 2, lines 19-28; 29, Figure 3, column 3, lines 27-32) and a sealing member (21, Figures 1 and 2; 30, Figures 3 and 4) comprising an O-ring and closer to the fuel tank than the flange. The collar at the outer end of the neck body serves as the flange for fixing the filler neck to a vehicle.

5. Anhegger et al does not teach the flange fixed to a vehicle. Bovellan et al discloses a filler neck with a similar flange construction and further discloses the fixing of the filler neck to a vehicle using the flange (Figure 2, column 2, lines 37-42). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have incorporated the use of the flange on the filler neck to fix the filler neck to a vehicle as disclosed by Bovellan et al with the filler neck disclosed by Anhegger et al to provide the means for fixing the filler neck to a vehicle.

6. Anhegger et al does not teach the use of a fuel cap with gasket ring between the cap and the retainer. Goto et al discloses a filler neck of similar construction with a fuel cap (38) having a gasket ring (46) between the cap and the retainer (Figure 2, column 3, lines 12-18) to provide secure engagement and a fluid-tight seal. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have incorporated the use of a fuel cap with a gasket ring between the cap and the retainer as disclosed by Goto et al in the filler neck disclosed by Anhegger et al to provide secure engagement and a fluid-tight seal.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-5 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Harry A. Grosso whose telephone number is 571-272-4539. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday from 7am to 4 pm.
